RAIDHYN'S 1.8.6 1V1 TIER LIST

This list is based on what players in the top 50 ranks are playing and finding success with in addition to my own personal opinion based on matchup experience with multiple players. Mini Tournament #7, multiple discussions with the community, matchup considerations and a plethora of other back breaking head aching research and thoughtfulness.

A+

Ahhh Hattori. Now that guns can't lock her down, weapon throw carnage can't bring her down, and the new nitrode has made her reaction times even better. Her low damage and armor is useless, just don't hold her back now that she can rush down with less fear than ever before. Everyone's favorite ninja is back at the top of the list.

DISCLAIMER - JUST CAUSE SHE'S A+ DOESN'T MEAN THAT YOU'RE CONNA CLIMB OUT OF TIN BY PICKING THE NINJA AT LEGEND SELECT. SHE'S A CURRENT FLAVOR OF THE MONTH. NOT AN UNSTOPPABLE FORCE

A

Lucien was dropped back down to A tier because the guns rework finally gave him a weakness. Everyone else here is incredibly strong in their own rights, utilizing different playstyles as needed to win.

A-

Nai climbed out of E tier due to her amazing new signature moves but is still somewhat held back by her slow movement and attack speed. Sentinel remains an enigma and is very underplayed despite having decent signatures.

B

These legends all have low attack speed and problems with their signatures preventing them from being continuously viable in tournament play. Although some players have found good success with Teros, his playstyle (which relies heavily on perfect reading) isn't consistent enough to put him beyond B tier.
